Feeding back on ePortfolios

- 1) You will be given a link to a student's ePortfolio. It will look something like this: http://mahara.solent.ac.uk/view.php?id=85930
- 2) Try and bookmark it somewhere to keep it safe and easy to find (perhaps in a word document in a USB drive, email folder, web browser etc.)
- 3) Click on the link you'll be sent straight to the eportfolio (no need to log-in). It will look like this:

y Social Work Placements
	Explanation
	Given this flexibility, students are able to focus upon the practice tasks within their placement context and present "actual" practice evidence within their "central evidence document". This evidence must be presented with due regard to the confidentiality of service users, colleagues, practitioners and the placement agency.
EVIDENCE	When statisting elvance or of table documents <sup>2</sup> – pisade tate calve to consider the Pu-r. I mit will be a key focus for the assessment or the student's performance and relevant, holistic evidence must be provided within the portfolio. Please continue to bulk your evidene documents over the course of your plexement. This will build to a total of 14 documents, 1 reflection upon your induction, 12 existence to Board of the final reflective easy.
ENCE	There is one other tem for inclusion on this page - the workbook from your Skills Labs. Please upboad this before the commencement of your placement - this will enable your Practice Educators and (Where applicable) Practice Supervisor, to consider your learning needs further.
